

Margaret K. Lightner

Vice President, Senior Services
President, Botsford Continuing Care Corporation
President, Oakwood Health Promotions, Inc.

Beaumont

Margaret Lightner is president of the Beaumont's continuing care retirement communities in Dearborn and Farmington Hills and vice president of senior services at Beaumont Health, Michigan's largest health care system, based on inpatient admissions and net patient revenue.

In these roles, Lightner's responsibilities include oversight of skilled-nursing beds, assisted-living units, apartments and privately-owned condominiums. She serves Beaumont as an expert in senior care and aging and assists with consulting project and strategic planning.

With more than 20 years of experience in senior care and housing, Lightner's prior experience includes serving as administrative liaison for Oakwood Healthcare.

Lightner is a fellow of the American College of Health Care Administrators. She is the 2012 recipient of the Facility Leadership Award from the American College of Health Care Administrators. Lightner is a member of the Michigan Center for Assisted Living and led the organization as board chair in 2007. She earned a master's degree in health services administration from Central Michigan University and a bachelor's degree in dietetics from Eastern Michigan University.

Beaumont Health is Michigan's largest health care system for inpatient admissions and net patient revenue and is most preferred for health care in the tri-county area, according to National Research Corp. survey data. A not-for-profit organization, it was formed in 2014 to provide patients with the benefit of greater access to extraordinary, compassionate care, no matter where they live in Southeast Michigan. Beaumont Health has total net revenue of $4.4 billion and consists of eight hospitals with 3,429 beds, 174 outpatient sites, nearly 5,000 physicians, 38,000 employees and 3,500 volunteers. In 2017, Beaumont Health had 175,688 inpatient discharges, 17,789 births and 574,591 emergency visits. For more information, visit beaumont.org.
